

Skill Development Programme on Pharmacovigilance for Medical Products (PvM) through 5 Day Webinar

(9th November – 13th November 2020
Time: 10:30 AM to 01:30 PM)

India Pharmacopoeia Commission
National Coordination Centre-
Pharmacovigilance Programme of India

Ministry of Health & Family Welfare,
Govt. of India,
Sector 23, Raj Nagar, Ghaziabad-
201002

(WHO Collaborating Centre for Pharmacovigilance in Public Health
Programmes & Regulatory Services)

Training Objective

The Objective of the Skill Development Programme is to enhance Pharmacovigilance knowledge and skills of the Healthcare professionals, which in turn are expected to promote patient safety through reporting of ADRs.

Target Participants

Pharmacy/Medical/
Paramedical students
Pharmacovigilance
Professionals/Research
Scholars

Last Date of Registration

4th November 2020
Time: 5:00 PM

Registration Procedure

- ❖ Registration Fee Rs.1000/- (including 18%GST) per participant.
- ❖ Online registration is mandatory through following link :
https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdFI_ ispa130M1vB5c_RyVqSOj9gCzA6664BeZR-qKvP8dZMg/viewform
- ❖ After successful registration, individual participant will receive the webinar link on their registered Email Id
- ❖ For any query, please contact on Email: sdp.nccpvpi@gmail.com

Course Contents

- Pharmacovigilance: Basics, Objectives & Methods
- ADRs: Understanding, Prevention & Reporting
- Understanding about Individual Case Safety Reports (ICSRs)
- Hands-on-training on ICSRs processing
- MedDRA coding
- Pharmacovigilance Programme of India (PvPI)
- Good Pharmacovigilance Practices (GvP)
- Regulatory Aspects of PV
- Materiovigilance Programme of India
- Causality Assessment & Quality Review of ICSRs